

GALLOW GOD – FALSE MYSTICAL PROSE

(PSY 055)

on psycheDOOMelic records

UK doom band with its debut release.

It's very traditional sounding but has a mix of epic in there too. The band's first release comes in at a little under forty minutes long.

This is the album Black Sabbath should have made instead of Technical Ecstasy. There's even something of a young Ozzy about the vocals. Slow, dark, thoughtful, emotional. For fans of Fall Of The Idols, Isole and sincere doom metal...
