

MÖSE / HOG MOUNTIN

SLUDGE SPLIT CD
(PSY 027)

After mighty outputs by NYC sludge kings Negative Reaction, and a V/A sampler, we dig out US based Hog Mountin, a pissed off sludge band that lies somewhere inbetween Grief, Crowbar and Eyehategod. You can expect pretty heavy "scream the lungs out" sludge throughout most of the music.

On the other side of the split you get a couple of killer tunes by the Belgian Möse, a misanthropic sludge-metal outfit that released a killer 7" in the past. Raw, energetic material like you might got to hear live on their European shows
